CHICAGO BOARD

CHICAGO, Dec. 24—Prices were on the upgrade in the early trading on the Chicago board of trade. Trade was light and was interrupted by the usual leaders of the industrial division. Many of the popular rails were entirely ignored for specialities coptrolled by pools. New Haven repeated its low quotation of the year, but Chicago and Northwestern recovered part of its decline. Sales amounted to 275,000 shares.

Business in foreign exchanges was little more than nominal, but the principal remittances were distinctly firm. The London rate was higher by one per cent and allied quotations rose five to 20 points, strength also being shown by Dutch. Swiss, Norwegian and Spanish bills.

The bond list retained its recent uncertain characteristics, liberty issues and the domestic division almost as a whole closing at mixed changes.

Total sales, par value, $5,775,000.

Other products were about five points higher on light transactions.

It is only in the last couples of months that it has been possible to make real money and as usual the job required nerve. It has been a hard wearing year all around. We look for a very different situa-tion in 1922. We are entering into 10514 a period where common sense and practical analysis will once again yield rewards. The cataclysm which was bound to follow the terrific bull market of 1919 is now over. We have really entered on a reconstruction era which is sure to hold rich results for people who correctly gauge the tide and its effect on individual properties and companies.
